REPORT OF SCHOOL BOARD.

DIVISION NO. 1. Both terms were under the instruction of Miss Nellie A. Putnam, and we feel justified in saying that the advancement made surpasses that of any other school in town.

DIVISION NO. 2. First term, Nellie E. Crosby, teacher. Miss Crosby succeeded in gaining the good will of her pupils, and labored for their improvement, both mentally and morally. The advancement in the various branches was not so marked as in some schools, but there was an element of thoroughness running through it all.

Second term, Miss Nellie S. Hall, teacher. Miss Hall puts her whole strength into her work. The order was good, and the general appearance of the school through the term and at its close was very satisfactory.

Third term, Edgar W. Davis, teacher. Mr. Davis has had considerable experience in the school-room and is a good instructor, although his right to rule is not so fully enforced as it might be in some cases. On the whole, we feel that the term was a profitable one, especially so to those that had a mind to improve the opportunity.

DIVISION NO. 3. Miss Nettie H. Davis, teacher through the year. The summer and fall terms were all that could be desired, and we feel warranted in saying that the teacher faithfully performed her part during the winter term, notwithstanding some unpleasantness may have arisen. If any scholar has failed to derive all the ben-

DIVISION NO. 4. First term, Miss Lennie J. Philbrick, teacher. This was Miss Philbrick's first term, and we think she will make a success of the calling she has chosen, having well laid the foundation on which to build, namely, manifesting an interest in, and love for her pupils, thereby gaining their love and respect, which makes the management of a school very easy.

DIVISION NO. 5. Idella F. Blanchard, teacher. Miss Blanchard performed her duties cheerfully and heartily; as much so, perhaps, as most teachers would with only seven scholars.
